

Ladies Class Program

Beginning with the 2009 season ALSCCA will introduce a Ladies Class. Any non-novice lady may run in this class for season points. Ladies may choose to run in the Ladies Class or may run in the regular car classes.

Below are detailed guidelines for the Ladies Class

Novice Class Rules

Beginning with the 2009 season the Alabama region of the SCCA will add a Ladies Class to each event. Below is the guidance for the Ladies Class.

Eligibility

1. Participants in the Ladies Class (LC) do not have to be members of SCCA. LC participants must be a member of SCCA for cumulative points for year end awards.

PAX

1. All LC participants will awarded raw and PAX times within the group.
2. PAX times will determine the winner of each event and be used to accumulate season points..

Classes

1. LC participants will class their vehicle in accordance (IAW) with SCCA rules.
2. Car numbers will be assigned (IAW) ALSCCA practices with the addition of the letter "L" at the beginning of the class. (i.e. LES 14).

Season Winner

1. Season Points will be determined by points awarded throughout the season, following the current guidelines and rules that govern ALSCCA Solo Classes.
2. The Ladies Champion will be awarded a class Champion Trophy..